

The Valuable 500

I, the undersigned, commit to joining The Valuable 500 and supporting a global movement to put disability on the business leadership agenda.

In 2019 I will:

1. Ensure that disability inclusion is on our board agenda
2. Make at least one firm commitment to action
3. Share our commitment with the business and the world

The Valuable 500 is a global movement putting disability inclusion on the business leadership agenda and celebrating those who are already committed to inclusion.

500 of the most influential business leaders around the world coming together to ignite systemic change and unlock the business, social and economic value of people living with disabilities. These 500 leaders will drive the inclusion revolution by harnessing the power of business to enable everyone to participate in society with ease, ambition and autonomy.

The Valuable 500 will profile leaders and businesses who are championing disability inclusion. The movement will celebrate those leading the way and provide guidance and best practice for those starting out. So wherever you are on your disability inclusion journey, the aim is to enable more businesses than ever to drive enhanced commercial performance by removing barriers both internally and externally.
